CHARLES EYMAN AT REST.

Burial in Mill Cemetery—Large Attendance of Friends.

The funeral of the late Charles W.
Eyman, aged 37 years, who was accidentally killed Sunday morning at the Lyon & Armstrong planing mill by having a broken stick driven through his body, took place yesterday from the Congregational church near Warrenburg.
There was a very large attendance of friends of the family, including Miss Charlotte Graham, of Kansas City, Mo., who was to have become the wife of the deceased next Christmas. She arrived at Warrenburg just in time to attend the funeral of her betrothed. The engagement was made while Mr. Eyman was employed at Kansas City. Upon the occasion were many floral offerings of massive design. Rev. Runnels conducted the impressive service and the church choir furnished the music. The interment was in the Mill cemetery.

James Taggart, George Bunker, Will Schroder, Bart Berman, John Burns and T. S. Childs were the pallbearers. The Lyon & Armstrong was closed yesterday and the proprietors and employers attended the funeral in a body, six carriages going to Warrenburg from Decatur.

Mrs. Salina Eyman, mother of the deceased, and members of the family, return their grateful thanks to Decatur and Warrenburg friends for their kindly sympathy and aid during their time of deep sorrow.

The deceased was a man of exemplary habits. He was industrious and provident.
He possessed great courage, and often sacrificed his own comfort and has endangered his life for the safety of others. He displayed courage and grit in pulling the bloody stick from his body when he was placed through with the piece of wood, and once while in Kansas with a party of Warrenburg young men digging a well he displayed his grit.
The well was nearly 90 feet deep. He was at the top operating the windlass.
There was a man at the bottom of the well. Eyman was pulling to the top a bucketful of earth and stones. He was watching a number of coyotes snapping about, and accidentally lost control of the handle of the windlass for a moment. The flying handle struck him on the head, making a great gash.

Partly stunned as he was, Eyman remembered that a life was in danger at the bottom of the well. With the courage of a lion he flew to the flying handle and caught it with both hands at imminent danger of his own life, and while the blood was streaming down his face and body from the cut on his forehead, he stopped the downward flight of the bucket and averted a catastrophe. He was nearly exhausted when friends who heard his cries for help came to his assistance.

RETURNS TO-NIGHT.
They Will be Taken Out From the Wire and Read at the Court House.

Republicans and Democrats, as well as Prohibitionists and Populists will get together at the court house and hear the election bulletin read as taken hot from the wire, which will run into the jury-room. A Western Union operator will be in charge, and as rapidly as the bulletins come from Chicago they will be carried into the circuit court room and be read from the Judge's stand.

Let it be known that everybody is invited to assemble at the court house to secure the latest news from Decatur, Macon county and all points in the Union.

Telegraph Rates Changed.
Several changes in the rates for telegraphic messages made by the Western Union company, which went into effect October 1, have caused much notice except among those who have considerable telegraphing to do, and to whom the slightest reduction in rates means great saving of expense. The most important change which has been made is in the method of charging for numbers.
